Criteria for Don Edde Award

The Don Edde Award is named in honor of the founder of the Life and Health Compliance Association (the “Association”). The executive committee, at its discretion, will bestow the award upon an individual or individuals who demonstrate outstanding service to the Association and the insurance compliance community. Some examples of outstanding service may include:

- Ongoing leadership and volunteerism;
- Continuous, active participation and leadership during meetings;
- Commitment to the growth and improvement of the Association;
- Commitment to the highest standard of professionalism and ethics;
- Proactive effort to involve new participants and first-timers in meetings;
- Other criteria the executive committee deems appropriate.
